

General Signing Information

- 1) One ticket gets you one autograph.
- 2) Oversize items (bat, glove, jersey, Photo larger than 8x10, etc.) are extra.
- 3) Inscriptions (to someone, statistics, date, accomplishment, etc.) are extra.
- 4) Inscriptions on oversize items will be charged for 2 extras (1 for oversize and another for inscription).
- 5) Having Game Used items signed may be extra (this varies by athlete/agent).
- 6) Tickets are numbered and small groups of people are allowed in line by ticket number (groups of 10-30 at a time). This allows everyone to shop and not have to wait in a long line.
- 7) You may have a photo taken with the athlete. Bring your own camera. Many shows/stores that host signings don't allow this or charge extra to take a photo.
- 8) You may bring your own items to get signed. The store will also have a variety of items available for sale for the event.
- 9) VIP events will allow you to be photographed with the athlete and have that same photo signed. Food and beverages will be available. The setting will be in a small group give you the opportunity to interact with the athlete and ask questions for a more personal experience. There is an extra cost to attend, are very limited as to quantity available and may not be available for every athlete.
- 10) Signing times are estimated and are subject to influences such as weather, travel, other commitments (i.e. coming from a signing at another store). As in point #6, there is no need to show up early or wait around for an hour or more. Anyone purchasing a ticket will receive an autograph.
- 11) You must bring your ticket to receive your autograph.
- 12) We will supply all pens & markers that will be used to sign items.
- 13) You may purchase tickets in advance in the store or by phone.
- 14) If you purchase additional tickets at a later time, you may still get all of your items signed at your lowest ticket number. You do not have to stand in line twice.
- 15) Please direct any other questions/suggestions to jtercheck@legendssportsandgames.com prior to the signing event.